

Friday 9 October

Bookshops · Bloomsbury · British Museum · London trip 8–11 October
2026

08:25	Hotel to Charing Cross
09:13	Walk to Stanfords
10:10	Walk to Foyles
11:10	Walk to lunch on Store Street
11:25	Lunch · Honey & Co. Daily
12:15	Walk to Winston House
12:25	Winston House · quiet stop (arranged)
13:00	Walk to the AA Bookshop
13:35– 14:45	Scheduled cushion
14:50	Head to the British Museum
15:10	British Museum · entry 15:10 · stay 2 h or longer
Evening	Dinner to be decided
Evening	Back to Blackheath

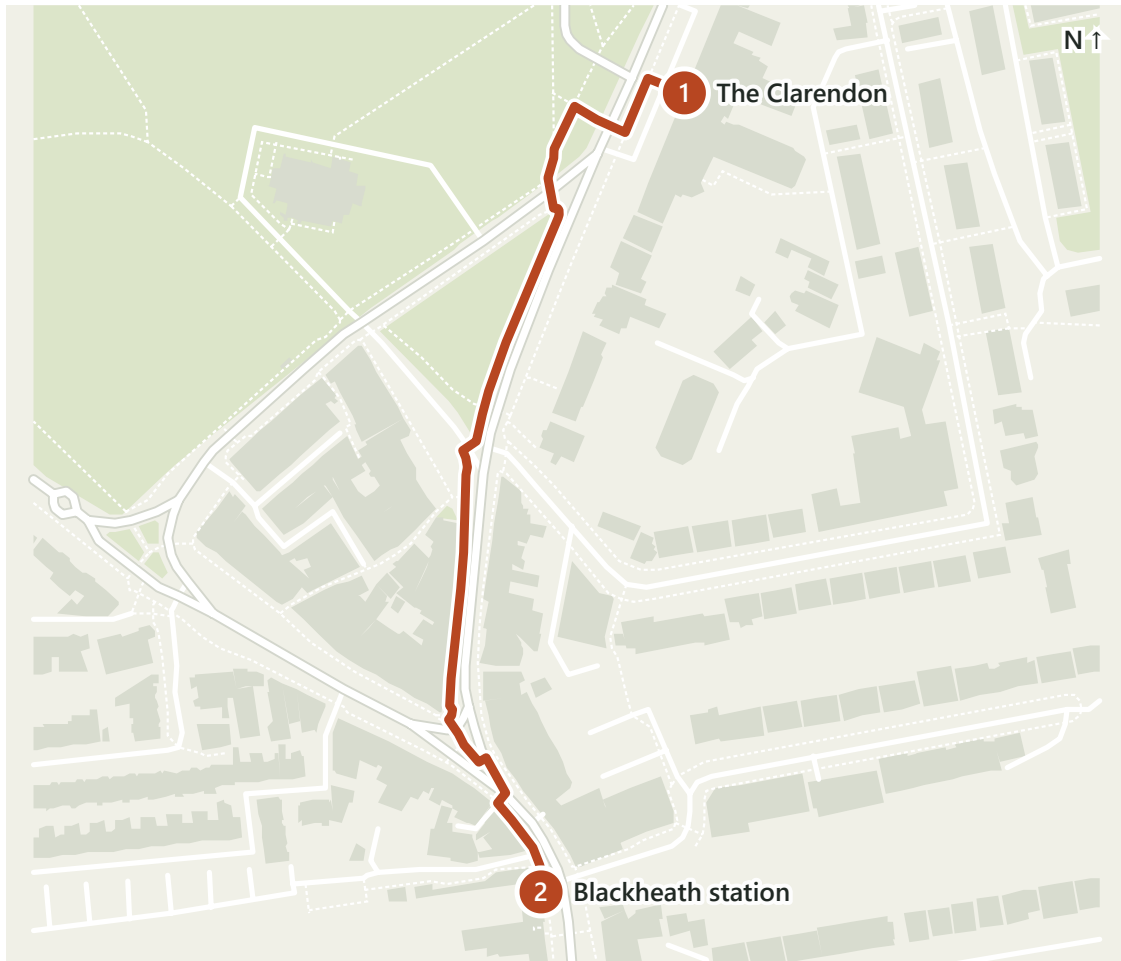

Friday 9 October · 08:25

Hotel to Charing Cross

Walk to Blackheath station, pick up coffee at Tiny Brew in the booking hall, and take the 08:51 to Charing Cross.

Walk to Blackheath station

5–6 min · 392 m from The Clarendon

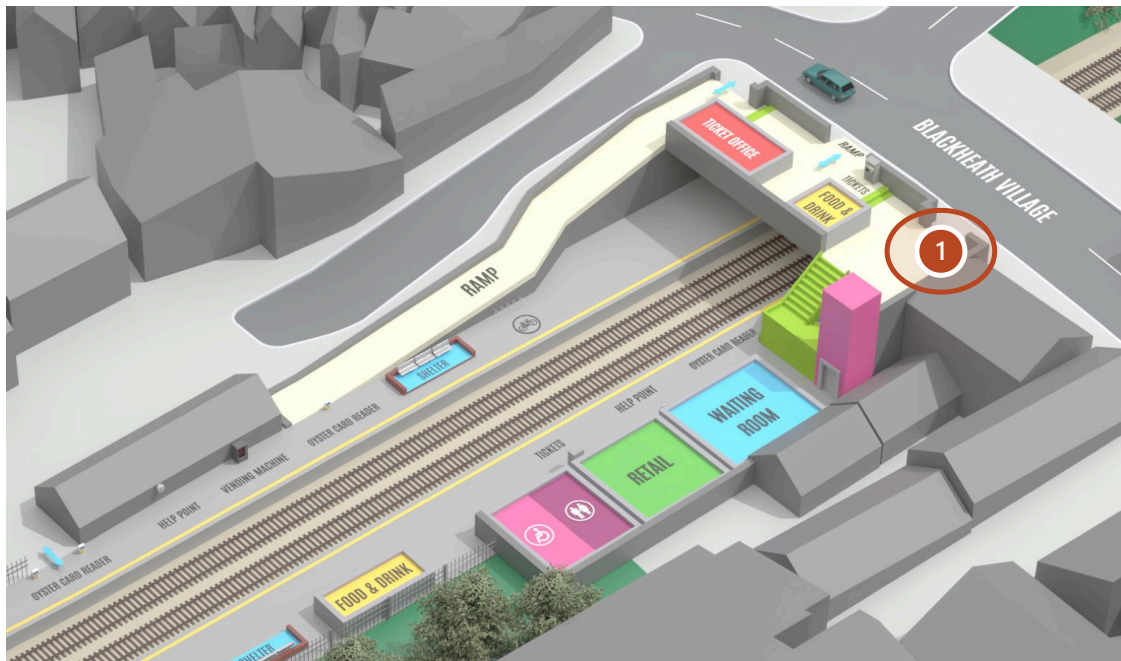

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Blackheath · trains to London

Booking hall · platform 1

platform 1

National Rail station plan ↗

1 Booking hall entrance (Tiny Brew inside)

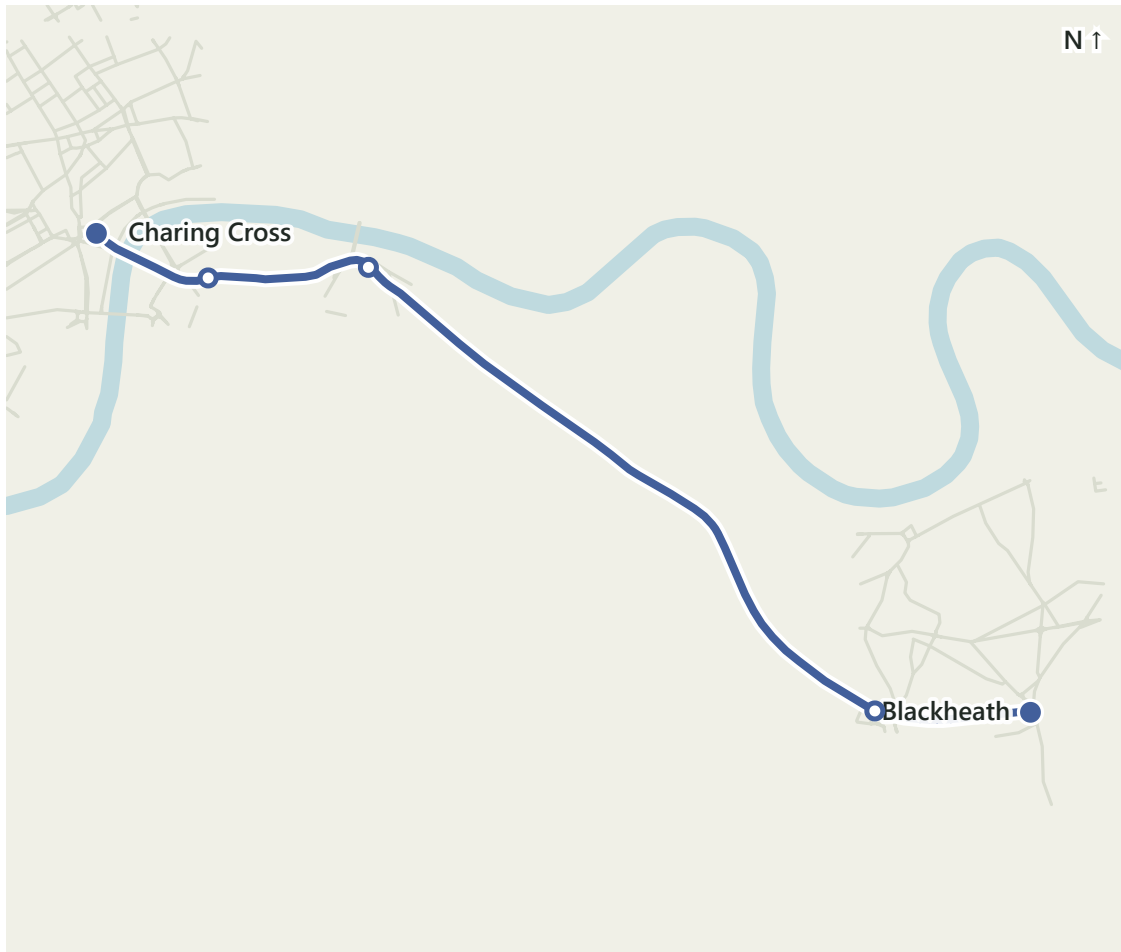

Enter through the booking hall facing the village. Trains towards London leave from platform 1; follow the platform signs and check the screen.

Planned train

Planned timetable. Check the departure screens on the day.

08:51 ● Blackheath
Southeastern to Charing Cross · Platform 1, towards London

09:13 ● Charing Cross
Arrive

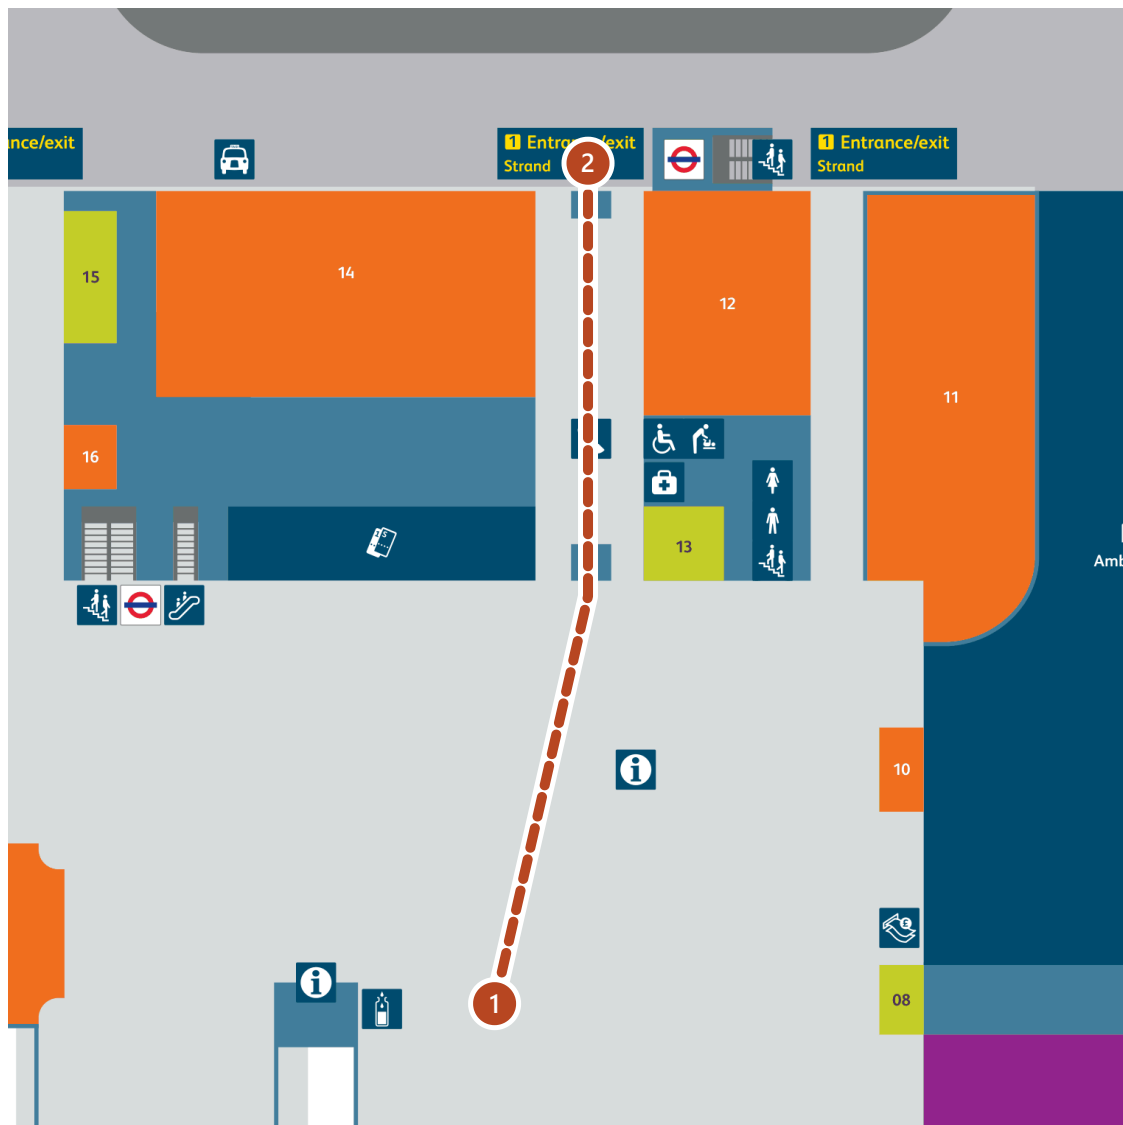

Railway line (illustrative)

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Charing Cross · out to the Strand

Main concourse

Main concourse

Network Rail · 2023 station map ↗

- 1 Main concourse 2 Strand exit (Entrance/exit 1)

From the platforms, cross the main concourse and follow Way out · Strand. Station exit numbers are not the same as the Underground's exit numbers.

Walk to Stanfords

Walk to Stanfords

12–15 min · 989 m from Strand exit

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

- 1 Leave by the Strand exit
Follow the Way out / Strand signs across the main concourse.
- 2 Up Southampton Street to Covent Garden
Through the piazza, then on to Stanfords on Mercer Walk.

Friday 9 October · 10:10

Walk to Foyles

Walk to Foyles

6–7 min · 459 m from Stanfords

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

1 Through Covent Garden's side streets

Then along St Giles Passage to Charing Cross Road.

Optional bookshops · on the way to Foyles (2)

Only if there is time. Not part of the plan.

Henry Pordes Books

A long-established second-hand and antiquarian shop strong on art, literature, history and first editions.

Open until 19:00 · adds about 2 min to the walk

Navigate

Any Amount of Books

A large second-hand and antiquarian bookshop on two floors near Leicester Square.

Opens 10:30 · adds about 3 min to the walk

Navigate

Friday 9 October · 11:10

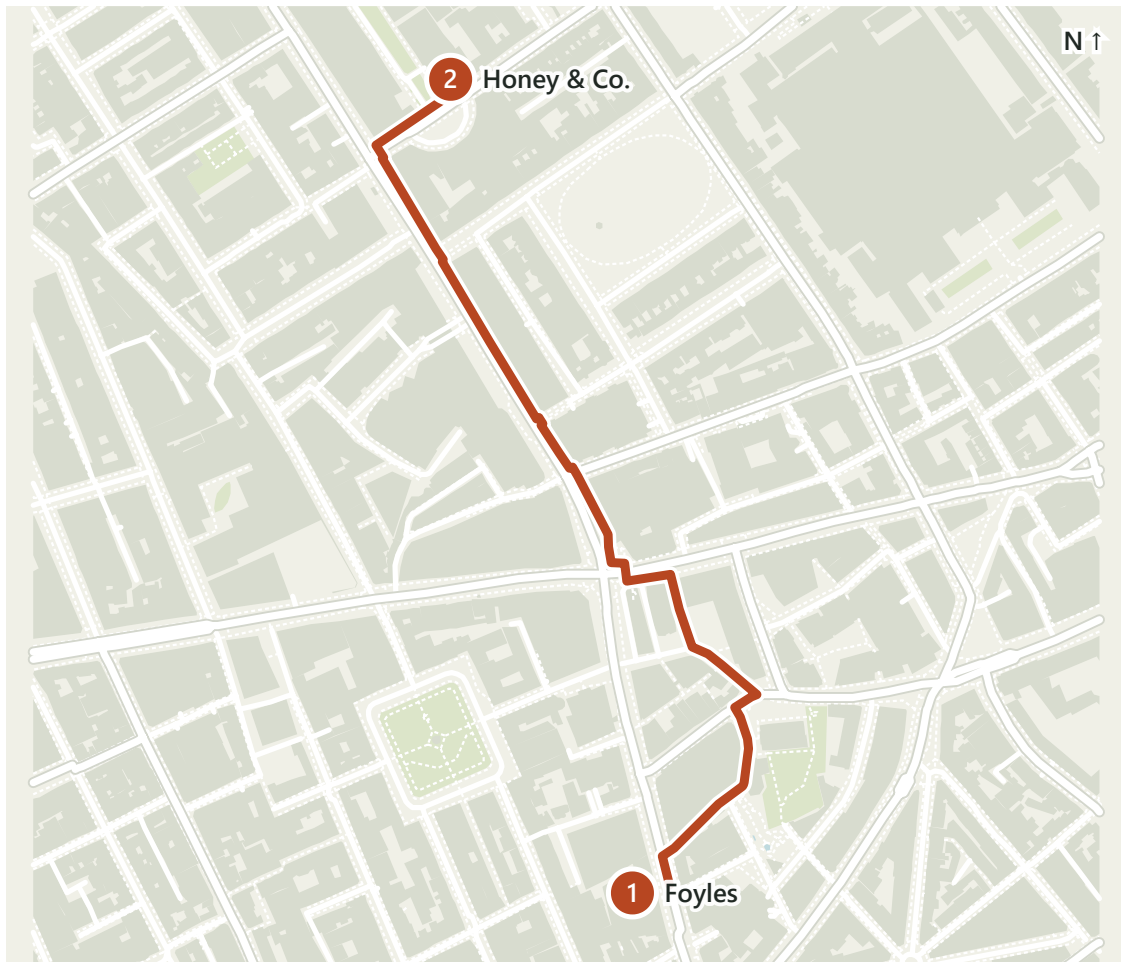

Walk to lunch on Store Street

Plan A is Honey & Co. Daily. If they cannot seat you promptly, The Life Goddess is a few doors away.

Option · Honey & Co. Daily

Walk to Honey & Co.

10–12 min · 798 m from Foyles

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Optional bookshops · on the way to Honey & Co. (4)

Only if there is time. Not part of the plan.

Bookmarks

London's long-running socialist bookshop, selling left-wing history, politics, fiction and children's books.

Open until 18:00 · adds about 4 min to the walk

Navigate

Jarndyce Antiquarian Booksellers

Navigate

A rare-book dealer opposite the British Museum, specialising in 17th–19th-century English literature and history, especially Dickens.

Open until 17:30 · adds about 6 min to the walk

AA Bookshop

A small specialist architecture and design bookshop run by the Architectural Association.

Open until 18:00 · adds about 3 min to the walk

Navigate

Treadwell's Books

An esoteric bookshop for witchcraft, magic, religion and divination, with new, second-hand and rare books and tarot readings.

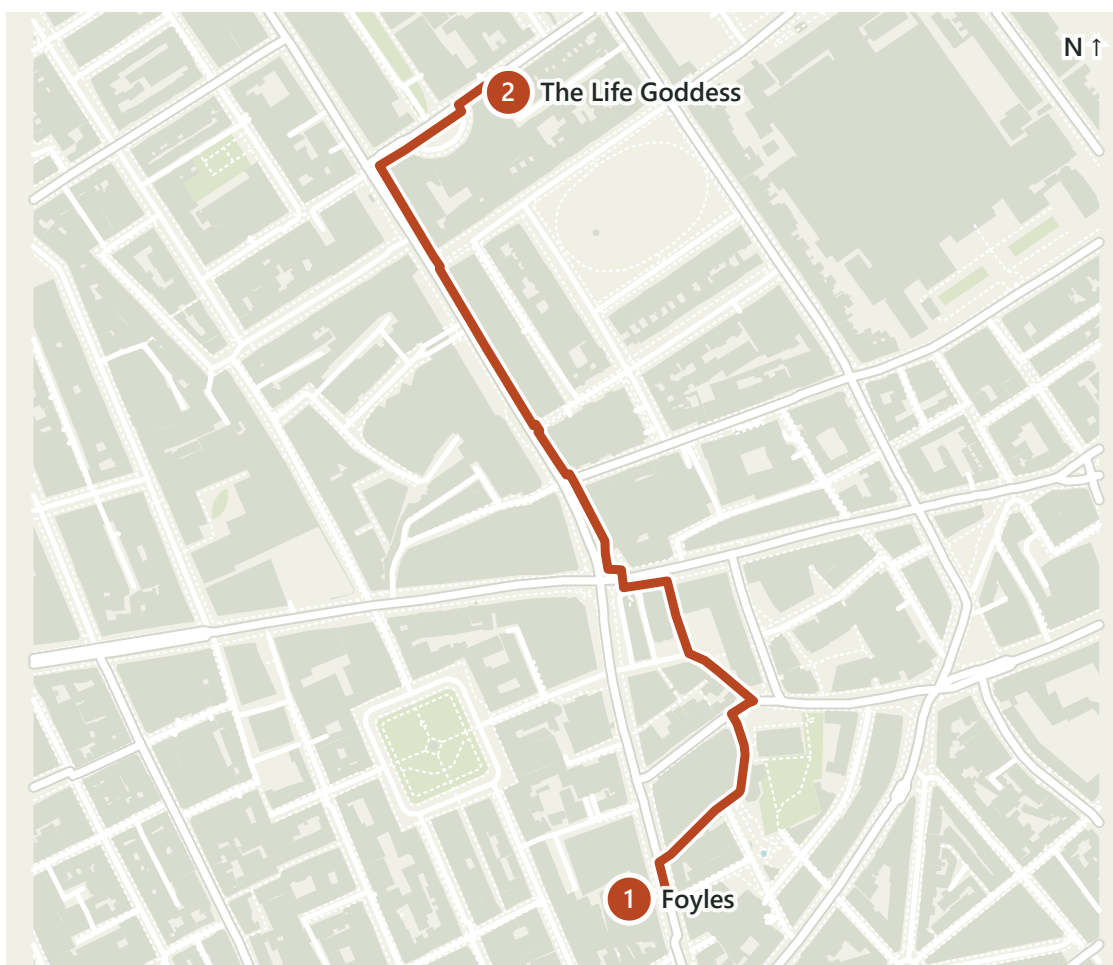

Opens 12:00 · adds about 4 min to the walk

Navigate

Option · The Life Goddess

Walk to The Life Goddess

10–13 min · 828 m from Foyles

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Friday 9 October · 12:15

Walk to Winston House

The arranged quiet stop at 3 Bedford Square.

Option · From Honey & Co.

Walk to Winston House

4–5 min · 345 m from Honey & Co.

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Optional bookshops · on the way to Winston House (2)

Only if there is time. Not part of the plan.

Treadwell's Books

An esoteric bookshop for witchcraft, magic, religion and divination, with new, second-hand and rare books and tarot readings.

Open until 19:00 · adds about 1 min to the walk

Navigate

AA Bookshop

Navigate

A small specialist architecture and design bookshop run by the Architectural Association.

Open until 18:00 · adds about 2 min to the walk

Option · From The Life Goddess

Walk to Winston House

4–5 min · 303 m from The Life Goddess

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Friday 9 October · 13:00

Walk to the AA Bookshop

Across Bedford Square to number 33.

Walk to AA Bookshop

2–3 min · 200 m from Winston House

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Friday 9 October · 14:50

Head to the British Museum

Timed entry is booked for 15:10. Allow at least two hours and stay longer if you like — the museum is open until 20:30 on Fridays; some galleries close at 17:00.

Walk to British Museum

7–8 min · 530 m from AA Bookshop

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Optional bookshops · on the way to British Museum (3)

Only if there is time. Not part of the plan.

AA Bookshop

A small specialist architecture and design bookshop run by the Architectural Association.

Open until 18:00 · adds about 1 min to the walk

Navigate

Bookmarks

London's long-running socialist bookshop, selling left-wing history, politics, fiction and children's books.

Navigate

Open until 18:00 · adds about 2 min to the walk

Jarndyce Antiquarian Booksellers

A rare-book dealer opposite the British Museum, specialising in 17th–19th-century English literature and history, especially Dickens.

Navigate

Open until 17:30 · adds about 1 min to the walk

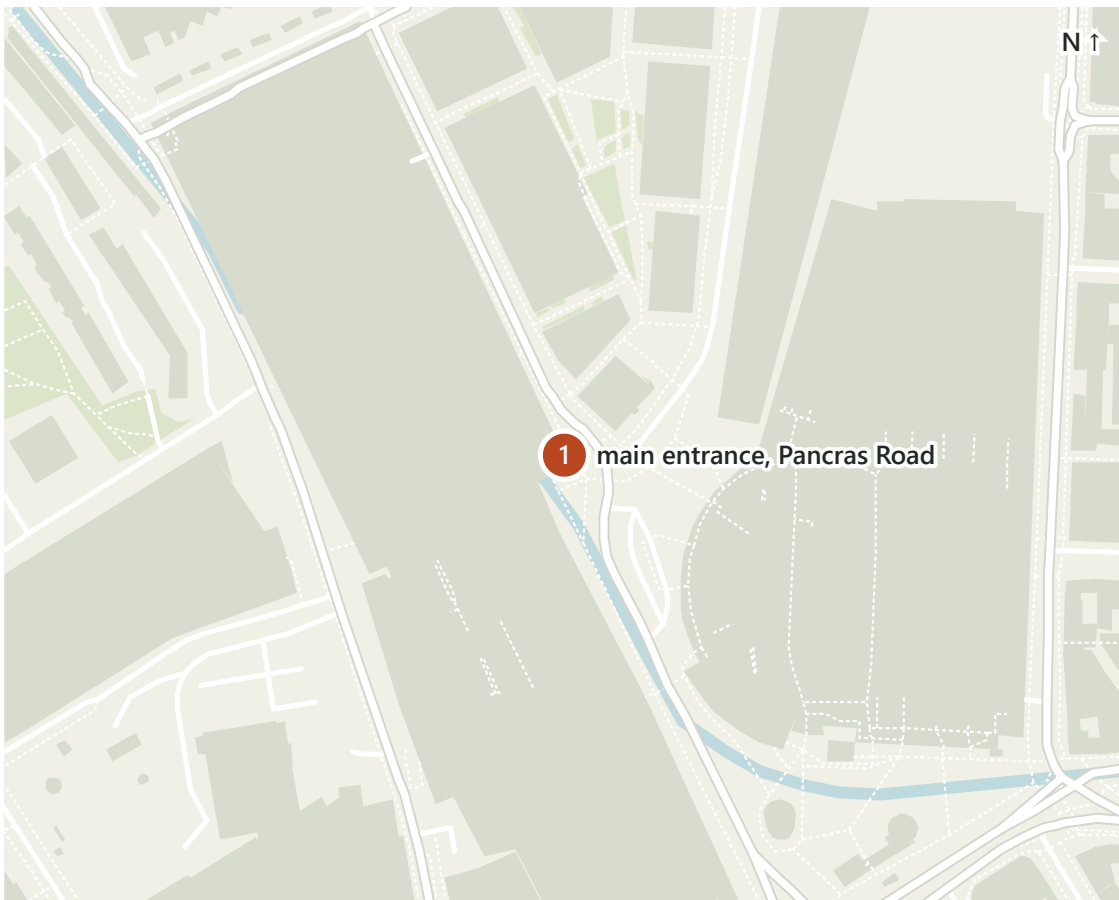

Friday 9 October · Evening

Back to Blackheath

Not chosen yet: return from St Pancras / King's Cross or from Charing Cross, after dinner. No departure time is set.

Option · St Pancras / King's Cross

St Pancras · main entrance, Pancras Road

Entrance

© OpenStreetMap contributors

- 1 Enter through the main entrance from Pancras Road
Walk straight across The Circle towards the Thameslink signs.
- 2 Follow signs for Thameslink A/B
Take the escalators down and check the screen for a train calling at London Bridge.

Optional bookshops · on the way to King's Cross (2)

Only if there is time. Not part of the plan.

Treadwell's Books

Navigate

An esoteric bookshop for witchcraft, magic, religion and divination, with new, second-hand and rare books and tarot readings.

Open until 19:00 · adds roughly 3 min to the walk

Judd Books

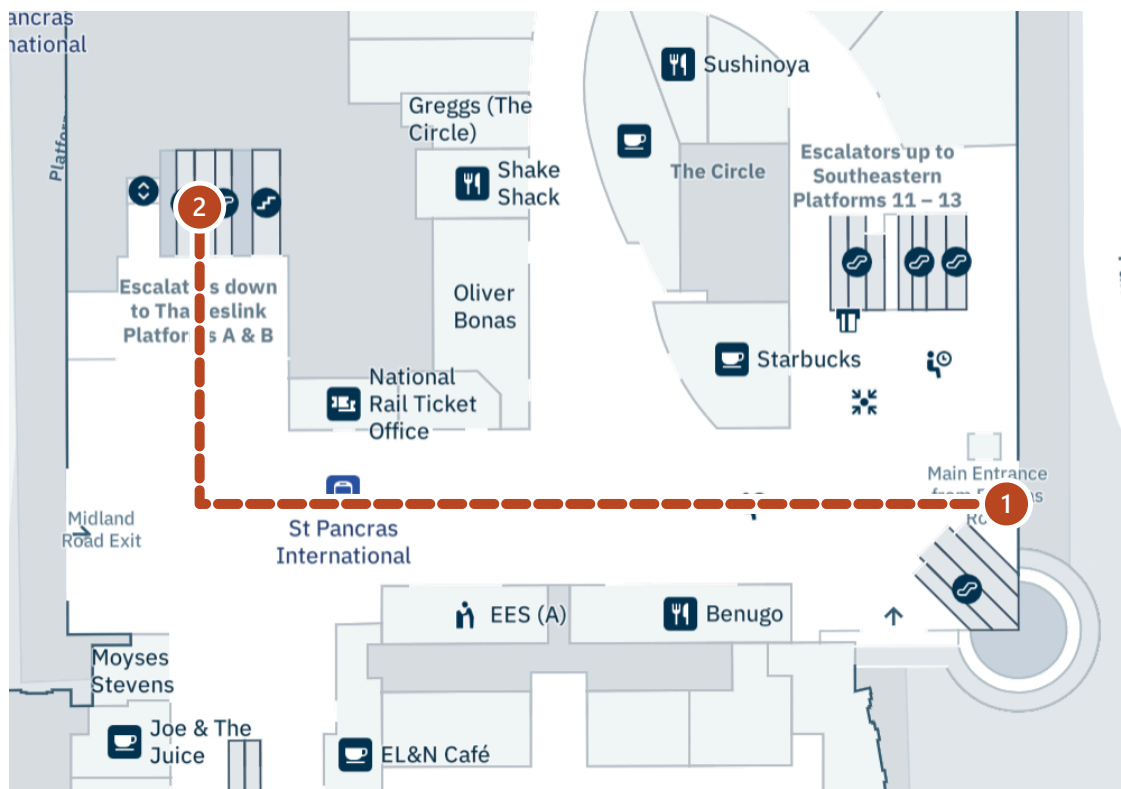

A two-floor new and second-hand bookshop of about 50,000 titles, specialising in art and the social sciences.

Open until 19:00 · adds roughly 1 min to the walk

Navigate

St Pancras · to Thameslink

Main entrance from Pancras Road · Floor 0

Floor 0

St Pancras Living Map · station operator ↗

- 1 Pancras Road main entrance 2 Thameslink A/B escalators

Walk straight across The Circle. Look for Thameslink A/B signs and take the escalators down. Check the screen for a train calling at London Bridge.

Train route

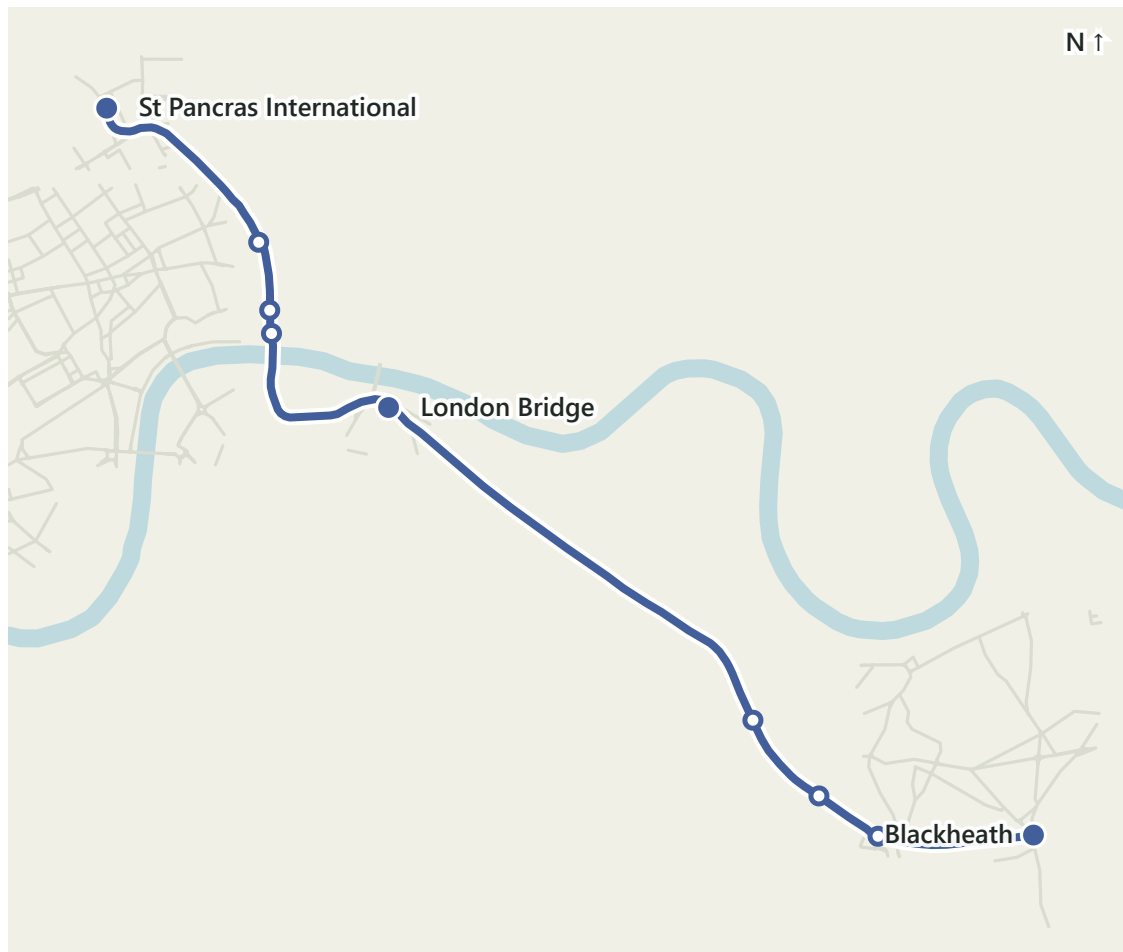

Check the departure screens for times and platforms.

- St Pancras International → London Bridge

Thameslink · Southbound train calling at London Bridge

- London Bridge → Blackheath

Southeastern · Change inside the station · check the screens for the platform

Railway line (illustrative)

© OpenStreetMap contributors

London Bridge · change trains

Stay inside the station · lower concourse

lower concourse

Network Rail · June 2025 station plan ↗

- 1 Access from platforms 4/5 2 Information point beside 6/7

From Thameslink platforms 4/5, follow signs down to the lower concourse. Look for the information point beside platforms 6/7, check the screens for the Blackheath train, then follow its platform signs.

Blackheath · exit to the village

Use the booking hall exit

Use the booking hall exit

National Rail station plan ↗

- 1 Platform 2 ramp 2 Booking hall / village exit

Trains from London normally arrive on platform 2. Follow the ramp to the booking hall and out to the village; The Clarendon is about 350 m away.

Walk to The Clarendon

5–6 min · 392 m from Blackheath station

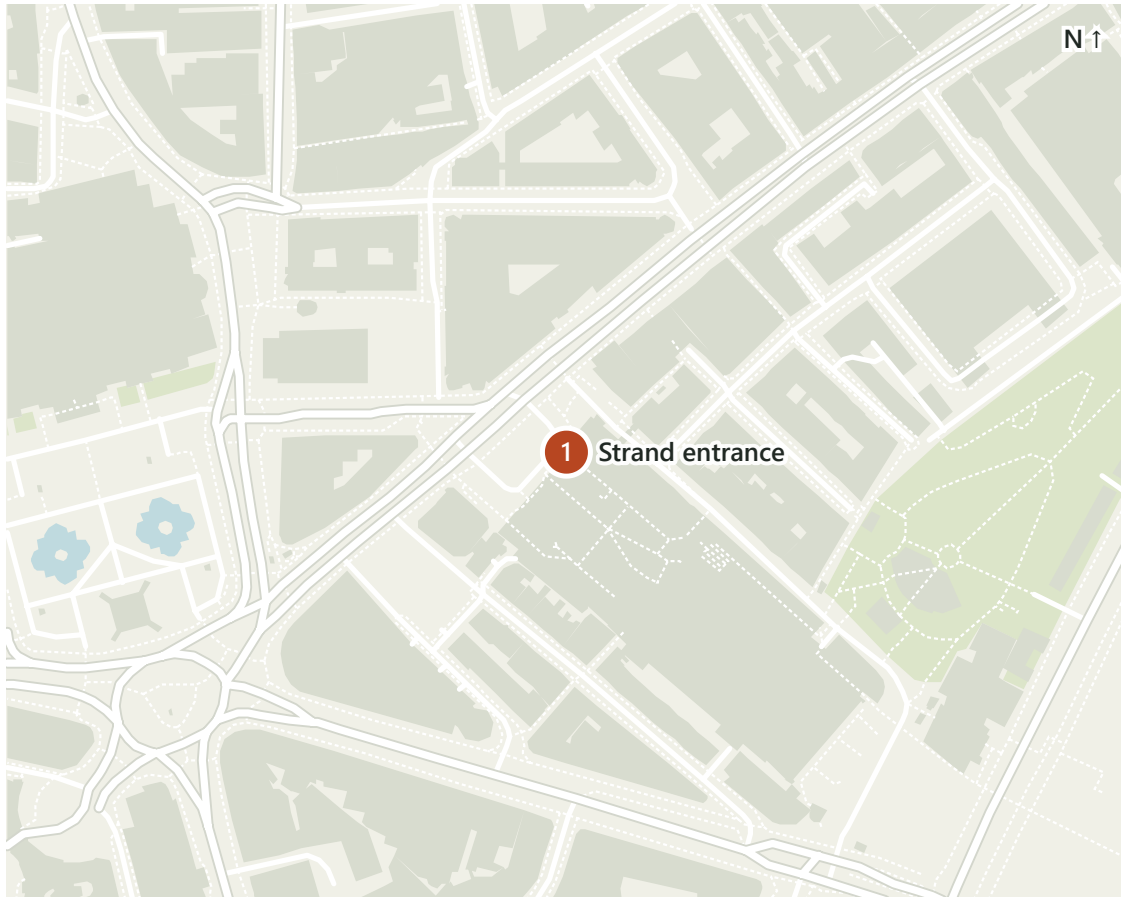

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Option · Charing Cross

Charing Cross · Strand entrance

Entrance

© OpenStreetMap contributors

1 Enter from the Strand

Cross the main concourse to the departure boards.

2 Find a Southeastern train to Blackheath

Some evening trains run direct; others need a change at Lewisham — the board and staff will say which.

Optional bookshops · on the way to Charing Cross (4)

Only if there is time. Not part of the plan.

Jarndyce Antiquarian Booksellers

A rare-book dealer opposite the British Museum, specialising in 17th–19th-century English literature and history, especially Dickens.

Open until 17:30 · adds about 1 min to the walk

Navigate

Bookmarks

London's long-running socialist bookshop, selling left-wing history, politics, fiction and children's books.

Open until 18:00 · adds about 1 min to the walk

Navigate

Henry Pordes Books

A long-established second-hand and antiquarian shop strong on art, literature, history and first editions.

Navigate

Enter from the Strand and cross to the main concourse. Check the boards for a Southeastern train to Blackheath, or one to Lewisham with a change there.

Train route

Check the departure screens for times and platforms.

● Charing Cross → Blackheath

Southeastern · Direct, or change at Lewisham

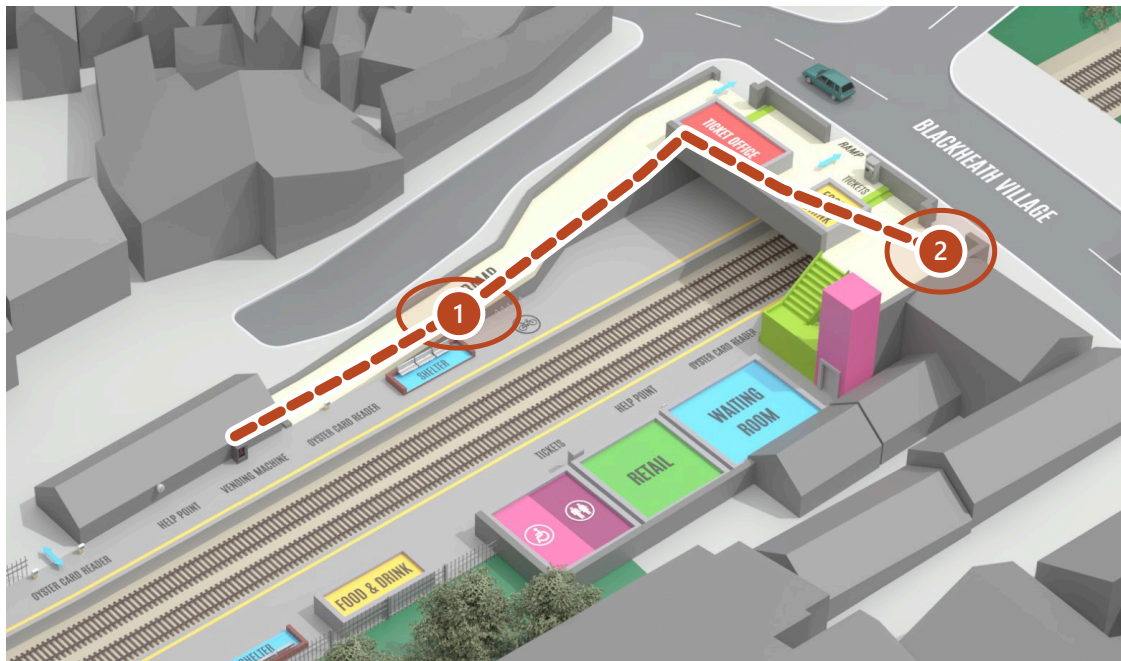

Railway line (illustrative)

© OpenStreetMap contributors

Blackheath · exit to the village

Use the booking hall exit

Use the booking hall exit

National Rail station plan ↗

- 1 Platform 2 ramp 2 Booking hall / village exit

Trains from London normally arrive on platform 2. Follow the ramp to the booking hall and out to the village; The Clarendon is about 350 m away.

Walk to The Clarendon

5–6 min · 392 m from Blackheath station

Walking route

© OpenStreetMap contributors

All times are London time. Train times are planned, not live.

Maps © OpenStreetMap contributors. Station plans © their publishers.